

Mission

The Institute seeks to develop linguistic competence and academic potential of students who desire to use their knowledge of and proficiency in foreign languages and literatures in their chosen profession and career through intensive foreign language programmes and continuous study support.