

VISION

The Institute envisions to emerge as one of the leading centers in the country engaged in teaching, research and service of major European languages and literatures.